NO HELP FOR
MAN SHUT OUT

Survival of Fittest the Rule at Land Sales—Hilo News
Items.

HILLO, March 13.—James W. Pratt, Commissioner of Public Lands, has forwarded to Manoel Vieira a copy of an opinion from the Attorney General's Department, declining to recognize his protest against the acceptance of the application of Antonio Cano for a right of purchase lease at the recent offering of lands made at the office of Sub-Agent Williams in Hilo.

Manoel Vieira claimed that he had placed number three in line on the morning of February 2, when by some means Antonio Cano obtained it and held it until February 21. From the opinion of the Attorney General's Department it appears that the Land Office has no concern with any line or order that may be formed by purchasers, and that its duty is simply to receive the applicants in the order in which they go to its office on the day upon which it has been advertised that applications will be received.

ITEMS.

Six blank checks have been stolen from Greenwell's store at Kealahou.
Two of them have been filled in and circulated, and it is possible that the others may be similarly used.

By the steamer Siberia, to arrive in Honolulu on Monday next, there are two contractors expected who will come at once to Hilo in connection with the Hilo breakwater contract.

W. H. Hoogs of Honolulu is here this week on breakwater business.

Jack Phillips, who resigned his position at the Olua store nearly two months ago, expects to leave Honolulu for New Zealand early next month.

There should be special elections to fill the unexpired terms on Hawaii that have arisen through the death of Representative Naillima in the First District and of Representative Keaouli in the Second District, in accordance with the provisions of the Organic Act.

There are at present two deputy sheriffs in the district of Hamakua.
Wm. J. Rickard has resigned his position, the resignation to take effect on March 31. On Thursday, March 5, Harry S. Overend was elected Deputy Sheriff of the District of Hamakua by unanimous vote of the full board.
There was no date specified in the resolution when the appointment of Over-end should begin, therefore it took effect on the following morning, March 6.

The Assistant Secretary of War, Robert Shaw Oliver, has granted the Hilo Fruit Company permission to construct and maintain a wharf (landing bridge) in Waialoa river, at Waialea, subject to the supervision and approval of the Engineer Office of the United States Army in charge of the locality.

Luiz Serrao, a son of A. G. Serrao of this city, is boatswain on board the Enterprise. It is not very long since he took to a seafaring life, but he likes it and intends to become a prominent master mariner. He was born in Hilo and has secured papers showing that he is an American citizen. Upon his return to San Francisco he will take an examination entitled him to an officer's certificate.

A Japanese auto bus began business on Tuesday morning on the Waialea run, the driver having secured a license from Examiner Campion on the previous day.

At Pauhaun, on Tuesday morning, a Hawaiian named Kealoa met a sudden death. He was a laborer for the Pauhaun plantation and was driving a team, the wagon being laden with cane, when he was shaken off the wagon by a jolt and killed.

H. H. Hardy, who is employed at the Volcano Stables as a painter, received a cable message from the Coast a couple of weeks ago that his wife was in a very serious condition of health, and that if he wished to see her alive he should leave by the first steamer. He did so, going by Honolulu, and landed in San Francisco about an hour before she passed away, just in time to see her and be recognized by her.

The name of Claridge's is well known to every visitor to London. The famous hotel in which princes and millionaires are so to speak, "three a penny," is about to celebrate its centenary. When it was opened, early in 1808, it was known as Mivart's, after the name of its founder, M. Mivart, a celebrated chef of the period. Mivart has one great claim to fame which no visitor to London should deny. He was the first hotel proprietor to provide his patrons with a bathroom, a fact which he advertised extensively.
In 1850 Mivart sold the business to Mr. and Mrs. Claridge, a butler and housekeeper in a ducal family. It is now run by a company.

The advantages of Denver as a convention city in July are at once demonstrated by the offer of one of the railroads to deliver a carload of snow each day at the convention hall.

LITTLE CRIME
ON GARDEN ISLE

Rev. and Mrs. H. Isenberg to Go on Tour—Various News Notes.

LIHUE, March 14.—The court dismissed the jury for the term last Wednesday on account of lack of male-factors. Kauai might be tempted to use the Pharisaic expression soon.

Manuel Santos was tried for larceny of money from a Japanese woman at Lawai while buying bananas and onions from her. A failure to have him identified and evidence that he was in Koloa at the time of the theft caused the jury to acquit him. Another case of larceny, alleged to have been committed near the same place as the first one, was dismissed as two Japanese children of seven and five years old respectively were the only witnesses against him.

Henry Naumu, who had shot a friend while fooling with a gun, pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery and was given a fine of fifty dollars and a strong lecture.

Manuel Lukini, charged with a breach of the moral statutes, pleaded guilty and got six months for it.

THE ISENBERGS.

Rev. and Mrs. H. Isenberg are busy preparing for an extended trip, intending to leave for Germany by the Mongolia 28th inst. Their intention is to stay away for a year or so. Mystic India, ancient Cathay and vigorous Japan will be visited before the travelers again take up workaday life in Lihue, in April or May of next year.

Mrs. A. S. Wilcox gave an enjoyable tea last Wednesday in honor of Mrs.
H. Isenberg who is soon to leave. Some very good music, delicious refreshments and the genial hospitality of Mrs.
Wilcox made the affair a thoroughly pleasant one.

Another of those social gatherings whereby the friends of Mrs. Isenberg wish to express their regret at her departure will take place tonight, Mrs.
W. H. Rice Sr. having invited a few friends to meet her at a pot supper.

Paul Isenberg always has some way of showing his interest in the Lihue Kegel Club when he visits the island.
This time it takes the form of six steins that he has put up as prizes for those who get the six highest scores tonight.

LIHUE ITEMS.

Frank Crawford of the Lihue branch of the Bank of Hawaii is off for the mainland on Tuesday. He has got a two months' vacation to attend to business and recreation. Chas. L. Beal of Honolulu, will attend to his duties while he is away.

F. Rutsch, who for six years has been teaching the little ones at the German school, has tendered his resignation to take effect at Easter. Mr. Rutsch has not yet decided whether he will remain in Hawaii or leave for the mainland. His class will be taken by Mr.
Maser, whose class will be in charge of the minister who will act as a substitute for Mr. Isenberg at the German church during the latter's absence.

The influenza makes itself felt in Li-hue. Quite a number of grownup ones and children are among its victims.

WAIMEA NOTES.

The district has been blessed with a copious downpour this week and everything is lovely, though the road between this place and Makaweli has been a qualifying exception.

Harry Bruns of the Marshal's office is in town again, this time hunting up more witnesses in the Korean counterfeiting case.

Waimea expects to be able to welcome the steamer Kinu next week and a committee of representative citizens has been selected to make the necessary arrangements for the proper ceremonies on the occasion.

J. J. Hjorth, who for some three years has held the position of bookkeeper in Lihue store, has been appointed to the vacancy at Kealahou created by the sudden departure of the former storekeeper there.

The cheerful sound of the county's rock crusher is heard in Kekuapa and the work of extending the macadamized roads of the district is being pushed along. It was at first feared that it would prove hard to find the necessary number of citizen laborers, but the reverse has turned out to be the case, more men applying for work than there can be used.

HOW DIPHTHERIA IS CON-TRACTED.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it not only cures the cold, but greatly lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. There is no danger in giving this remedy, as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaiian Islands.

The Mont Cenis route, the oldest of the Alpine through lines, is to follow the lead of the St. Gothard and Sim-plon routes and employ electric traction on its mountain division. Under the stress of the competition of the more recent lines, the French government has also double-tracked the approach to the tunnel on its side of the mountain, and the Italian government will carry this double-tracking to Turin.

"If Groucher ever comes around your place borrowing anything," said Wise, "don't let him have it." "You've spoken too late," said Huskie; "he was around yesterday." "You're easy." "What was he borrowing?" "Trouble." "He's in the hospital today."—Philadelphia Press.
